

Kara Herzog

Kara Herzog is the vice president of finance for Hilltop Companies. She provides leadership and direction for all aspects of the accounting department by ensuring the accuracy and timeliness of financial reporting processes, enforcing internal controls through policies and procedures, and empowering and mentoring the accounting staff.

Kara enjoys using her accounting knowledge and skills to contribute to the financial success of Hilltop Companies.

Kara played an instrumental role in implementing a new accounting software through detailed planning, enforcing timelines, documenting processes to ensure correctness, and motivating the staff during the year-long process.

Kara is a certified public accountant who belongs to the Ohio Society of Public Accountants, American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, Vistage International and Financial Executives International.

Kara holds a bachelor's degree in accounting from Ball State University.